“ Dear Char,
Like everyone else, I was stunned to hear of Terry's passing. Although time has gone by, I always look back on our friendship with fond memories. I look across the street and I can still see Terry way up high on the ladder spray painting the house while fighting off the bees. Then he'd collect the old nests (hives) and bring them over to our house where he and Andy would have a beer and dissect them. Just like two kids! Terry was a wonderful man who adored you. I know your heart will never be the same; however, he will always live through your children and your grand children....And that, my friend is where you will find comfort in the days ahead! I will be praying with you on Friday, September 4 at 10:00 a.m. Love,
