“ Sometimes his college friends could be crude, but often he could top us with something. Not sure when it started, but he just couldn't shake his nickname of "kiss my." We loved him so much; we are so sorry that he's gone but there is no one better to pave the way for all of us.

“ Our condolences on your loss of Mr. Budz. When death strikes, we can experience an array of mixed emotions: anger, sadness, disbelief, hopelessness, fear, grief. Such feelings are normal because our Loving God never purposed for us to die (Ecclesiastes 3:11). That is why this greatest enemy of mankind is soon to be destroyed forever, and our loved ones will live again (Isaiah 25:8; 26:19)! May such wonderful promises, soon to be fulfilled, bring you and your family much comfort in the days to come.

“ I am so sorry to hear about the passing of your dear love one. I have also experienced the loss of loved ones and what helped me and many others to cope is our heavenly father God (Psalms 83:18) The bible also gives us a marvelous hope for the future and tells us that soon God will bring an end to suffering, pain and death.
