“ Ted,
At first you were my mentor. You were there for me, you guided me, you grounded me, when others left me to blow aimlessly in the wind.
But then you became my friend. A true friend. A friend in every sense of the word.
Distance may have parted us, but in my heart you were always near.
I've never forgotten your kindness, your laugh, your smile.
I have never once forgotten you. I WILL never forget you.
May you rest in peace, knowing that you left behind memories of happy days, and broad smiles.
Judy, you embody the true definition of love, and devotion, and caring. You are an inspiration. I hope you find peace with the knowledge that you gave all you had, and no one knew that, and appreciated, and loved you more than Ted. He is now free of physical constraints, and his smiles can now light up the heavens.
All my love to you up there, Ted, and to you Judy, and to all of Ted's children.
With warmest thoughts of you always,
Amy Abrams###imported-begin###Amy Abrams###imported-end##

“ My journey with Judge Barner began 24 years ago when he married my husband Paul and me. We received his good council and blessings, and were entertained by his stories and jokes. Later I was to meet Judge Barner again as a caregiver, and was priviledged to be a wittness to his strong heart and will to live. I will always remember him and his loving wife Judy, who was forever at his bedside. There will be a special place in Heaven for them both.##imported-begin##Gloria Lanseros##imported-end##
