“ Uncle Tom was a warm, gentle man. I remember as a child loving to sit with him and talk. I also remember the potato chip truck. Fond memories.

“ Papa was the epitome of life. He enjoyed every moment and he shared his joy with every single person he met. The world lost not only a wonderful person, but the most beloved grandfather I could of ever asked for. The world is a little dimmer without him, but will continue to shine with the love, passion, and joy fullness that he brought to it. We will miss you infinitely. Rest In Peace Papa. You will be missed beyond words. Love you forever.
