“ To the Family and Friends:

I would like to express my deepest sympathy to each of you. Although we are not acquainted with one another, we all know what it feels like to lose one of our loved ones to death. Our Heavenly Father feels the pain that you are going through. He promises that the day is soon to come in which he will wipe the tears of sorrow from our eyes forever and death will be no more. (Revelation 21:3,4) He also promises that all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out. (John 5:28,29) Until his words are fulfilled may each of you continue to take comfort in him.##imported-begin##Lenette##imported-end##

“ Ann and Family,

I was deeply saddened to hear of Al's passing. Most of my fondest memories of serving at Crabapple include Al. He truly blessed my life and the life of my family, especially my children. My prayers are with you all##imported-begin##Alan Folsom##imported-end##

“ Dear Ann, Terry and Tommy,

Words do not come easy at a time such as this, but we know that God sends his angels to strengthen and comfort us as we grieve the loss of a loved oned.

Mr. Al was a special gentlemen, and many loved him. He was always friendly and interested in everyone, and will be missed by many.

We will continue to keep you in our hearts and prayers as you enter into this journey of grief.

*Love in Christ,
