“ Uncle Tommy, Your passing brings Great sadness. You were the last of the Uncles on my mother's (Betty) side of the family. My whole life when your name was spoken Ella's was right there with it. When Tommy and Ella was spoken, what immediately came to mind was "Family", Love of Family, Devotion and Love to Christ and the Church. Just a simple basic hardworking man that Loved and provided for his Family. A man whose word was his bond, always willing to help and not expecting anything in return. Always upbeat and positive and without anything bad to say. When you would leave after having a visit with Tommy you would feel Good! I would wonder How can I do things in my life to help guide me to be Like the Good Man that Tommy was! You were a "Prince among Men", You will be Missed "Uncle Tommy" Love Mike
