

Mr. Thomas Melvin Faucette

April 10, 1928 - November 13, 2020

Thomas Melvin Faucette was born on April 10, 1928 in Burlington, N.C. to Thomas Owen and Gladys Elizabeth Faucette. He died November 13, 2020.

Mr. Faucette spent his entire career of 33 years in the banking business. He became a Bank Examiner for the Federal Home Loan Bank and retired as a Civil Rights Specialist in 1990. Upon moving to Cherokee County from Atlanta in 1996, he and his wife, Myrna, joined the Crabapple First Baptist Church where they found a true church home and the support of many friends.

Mr. Faucette leaves behind children from his first two marriages. Thomas M. Faucette, Jr. (wife Gail) of Jacksonville, FL.; Dr. Mark Faucette of Carrollton, GA.; Carol Faucette Parsons, of Palmetto FL; Woodrow Andrews (wife Robin) of Pendergrass, GA. and Pastor Fred Andrews, deceased, (wife Julie) of Chattanooga, TN.

Mr. Faucette is survived by his present wife, Myrna Smith Faucette and her children, Cheryl Yandle (husband Richard) of Canton, GA. and Kenneth Smith (wife Brenda) of Woodstock, GA.

With love and a gentle spirit Tom embraced all seven of his children equally. He leaves behind eleven Grandchildren and nine Great Grandchildren all of whom will find it impossible to forget such a caring, loving Granddad and Poppo.

As he requested, there will be no funeral service only a private family graveside service at Greenlawn Cemetery in Roswell, Ga. Those wishing to remember Mr. Faucette might like to consider a contribution, in his name, to the Alzheimer's Association, Georgia Chapter, 41 Perimeter Center East, Suite 550, Atlanta, GA. 30346-1910
