

Mr. Thomas Joseph Kelley

December 15, 1943 - August 15, 2018

Thomas Joseph Kelley, 74, of Milton, Georgia, formerly of St. Johnsbury, Vermont for forty years, passed away on August 15, 2018 in Roswell, Georgia. Tom was born in Lorain, Ohio on December 15, 1943 to Blake and Catherine Gainey Kelley. He graduated from St. Mary's High School in Lorain and St. Vincent College in Latrobe, Pennsylvania and received his Master's degree in business from the Hartford Graduate Center in Hartford, Connecticut. His management career took him from the Hertz Corporation to a Vice Presidency with Fairbanks Scales and he retired from Cabot Creamery in 2009. Although he served on the board of the St. Johnsbury Country Club, his great love was his family. Predeceased by his parents, Tom is survived by Judy, his wife of almost fifty-two years, his three sons and their wives, Blake and Nancy of Bayonne, New Jersey, Matthew and AnnMarie of Yardley, Pennsylvania, and Brian and Mary of Indianapolis, Indiana, his daughter and son-in-law, Julie Kelley and Mac Mire of Milton, Georgia, and his six grandchildren, Shannon, Lauren, and William Kelly, Ryan and Katie Kelley, and Thomas Mire. Tom is also survived by his two sisters, Kathryn Kelley and her partner, John Breitreutz, and Jane Kelley all of Bloominton, Minnesota, and his best friends of fifty-five years, Linda and Tom Prezel of Bethel Park, Pennsylvania. A Mass of Roman Catholic Burial will be held at St. John the Evangelist Church in St. Johnsbury on a date still to be determined. Tom's life of joy and goodness will then be celebrated at a post-Mass luncheon.
