“ Tommy "The Dude" Noonan, I miss you my friend. Tony D. I'll always remember your Mom Grace tracking us down at some girls house and her slapping you all the way to her car saying, "Your Goose is Cooked". When at the car you tried to get me to sit in the middle between Grace and you. Sorry Pal, I just couldn't do that. I know you are laughing in heaven at that story from June 1968. We played Pop Warner Football together, graduated High School together, graduated the Junior College of Albany together, We were in each other's first weddings then the you moved to Atlanta and I only saw you once after that. We shared a lot together. I wish I could have been there for you during your illness. I was shocked to hear that you had passed. I cried then as I am now writing this. You were always a great friend to me, my 4th brother. I think about you often and always have a chuckle when I do. You're in a good place now Tommy. Hope to see you some day in the distant future. Your buddy, T-Babe.

“ Tom was a school friend. We along with Kevin Cane enjoyed many fun and memorable get togethers, especially up at the lake. He was a great guy whom left us way too early. I'm so sorry for his family's loss. He will always be remembered in our hearts.
