

Mr. Tommy Sidney Sherwood Patten

August 13, 1935 - April 1, 2017

Tommy Sherwood Patten, age 81, passed peacefully at home with his loving family by his side after battling cancer for six months.

He was the most loving husband of 59 years to wife, "Jeri" (Geraldine). They had 2 children, son, Mitchell, and wife, Ellen, and daughter, Shelia P. Lockard, and husband, Tony. Five precious grandchildren, Cristina Patten, Kyle Phillips, wife Emily, Luke Patten, wife Amber, Mark Lockard, and Sydnee Patten. Two precious great grandchildren, Lennox Cole and Wyatt Patten.

He was preceded in death by father, James Shirley Patten, mother, Bessie Powell Patten, brothers, Gene, Bob and Mike, and sister, Jane Hughes.

Tommy started his own business Patten Grading and Construction, which employed his whole family. Tommy was a family man who believed in putting God and family first. He enjoyed taking his family on many vacations, including yearly trips to Disney World and the Daytona 500 races. He had a river house in Ellijay, where he loved to sit by the river with his wife and family. One of his many great achievements that he leaves behind is his family legacy.

The family will receive family and friends at Northside Chapel Funeral Directors, in Roswell, on Monday April 3, 2017 from 5 pm to 8 pm. Funeral service will take place at Northside Chapel on April 4, 2017 at 2 pm, followed by interment at Green Lawn Cemetery, in Roswell.
