“ Terri, When I got this email about the fund my heart was broken for you. Though we only worked together briefly, your spirit always shined though, and I always wanted to bring you business because you seemed so sweet and friendly every time I hear a Cagle dairy commercial I think of “hello my friend” so when I heard this, I was especially sad. As the mom of a son, I cant imagine what you’re going through but can empathize because I understand the love a mom has for her son I pray that God would engulf you in his arms and love you and your family through this and I ask that you turn to him every time you feel the loss and I pray that the pain and hurt is soon replaced with wonderful memories and joy in knowing that you had twenty awesome years to love him and be loved by him. Just think how excited you’ll be to see him when you get to heaven, you’ll have an eternity to catch upGod bless you###imported-begin###Nicole McHenry###imported-end##

“ The passing of one we love so much us never easy. Although we hold to the "Blessed Hope" of seeing them in Heaven, that time of separation is difficult. However, heaven seems nearer and dearer when we have loved ones awaiting us there. Words are never adequate in a time of family loss. One writer said it so well when he penned these words about the home going of a loved one "...they have slipped the surly bonds of earth to touch the Face of God." We are saddened by your loss. Trae was a vibrant young man - and I know this is a huge time of grief for you.

Know this: Jesus never fails. No way can we understand such a tragic loss at such an early age, but God has a plan. I pray for your family that you may begin the grief process and that you will remain steadfast in God's promise of eternal life.

“ Trae,

I just want you to know that you impacted my life so much. Before we ever started hanging out i was living die, but then you showed me that there was so much more to life. You lived life with such a passion that could make the worst of days bright again. If i had never met you i would not be who I am today, and i know that for certain. From our trips to Carrollton to working at Acura there was never a dull moment, and if there was there was always that "whad up dogg" that you would always say. From the stuttering to the peachy peach air fresheners. From the times at the mall to the mountain bike rides. Even just the times at Publix. My life was made better by you from all of the memories made in such a short amount of time that we had.
