

Trevor Noel King

December 21, 1958 - January 10, 2012

Trevor Noel King, 53, of Roswell, GA, passed from this world on January 10, 2012 following a brave battle with cancer. Blessed with a generous heart and spirit, he truly had a global reach and impacted the lives of many people around the world. We have all lost a beloved husband, father, son, brother, uncle, friend and business associate. Born in India, he spent his youth in Ghana, West Africa before returning to India and graduating from St. Joseph's Boys School; maintaining life-long, treasured friendships through the 'Old Boys Association'. His early working years were spent in the Middle East before he permanently moved to the United States. There he met and married his wife, Doris, in California and they began their young family life in the Bay Area with the addition of their two cherished children, Michael and Danielle. In 1989, he founded Citland International; providing equipment and services to the mining industry which brought him to all corners of the globe-primarily Africa, which always held a big piece of his heart. In 1995, he relocated the business and his family to their present home in the Atlanta area. He was a force of life; driven and passionate in his pursuits including a climb to the top of Mount Kilimanjaro. He loved world travel and a good round of golf; but, above all, he loved his family and friends and Trevor never met a stranger. He is survived by his wife of 24 years, Doris King, his son, Michael King, his daughter, Danielle King and parents Raymond and Theresa King. He is also survived by his siblings Debbie Miller, Kevin King, Carrol King and Joanne Baxby; loving brothers-in-law, sisters-in-law, nieces, nephews and numerous relatives and friends from around the world. A mass of Christian burial will be held on Tuesday, January 17, 2012 at 10:00am at St. Thomas Aquinas Catholic Church, 595 Rucker Rd. Alpharetta, GA. 30004. Interment will follow at GA National Cemetery in Canton. Those who wish may contribute in Trevor's memory to 'The Water Project' at www.thewaterproject.org/community/profile/trevor-king. The King family will receive friends on Monday from 6-8pm with a prayer service to follow at Northside Chapel Funeral Directors, Roswell, GA. 770-645-1414. www.northsidechapel.com

“ You were a joy to your family and the rest of us, Trevor. My nephew and good friend, you never failed to amaze me, when I first saw you as little three year old watching over his little sister Debbie, and the last time I saw you kindly take a detour in Sydney. You were so proud of Doris, Michael and Danielle, you lit up talking about them. You achieved so much in your lifetime, and enriched the lives you touched and so, farewell, Godspeed and rest in peace, Nephew mine, God knows we will never forget you..... “ Trevor was the beautiful man in heart and soul who arrived in the life of our dear, equally beautiful Doris. God had put them together, and from this glorious paring came two wonderful children who have flowered in this home of love, strength, vision and goodness. It is with sadness, peace and deep love that I feel Trevor's presence as I remember him and feel him now. The aliveness of his bold, passionate and loving gifts to us everywhere live on within us. My family knew Doris, Trevor and the young children when Doris worked in our family business. I know we all forever hold Trevor, Doris, Michael and Danielle in our embrace, and, Doris and children, may your loving faith sustain you at this difficult time. Loving you,

“ Our most sincere condolences to all who grieve. Trevor singing “For Bobby For Baby” always comes to mind when we think of him. Gentle, soft spoken and funny. He and Adrian kept us in splits of laughter many a time in the days of our youth. It is very difficult to find comfort in the face of death. Here are some words to help you at this time:

*When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see;
If the sun should rise and find your eyes, all filled with tears for me;
I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you did today,
while thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say.*

*I know how much you love me, as much as I love you,
and each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too;
But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand, that an Angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand,
and said my place was ready, in heaven far above,
and that I'd have to leave behind, all those I dearly love.*

*But as I turned to walk away, a tear fell from my eye,
for all life, I'd always thought, I didn't want to die.
I had so much to live for, so much yet to do,
it seemed almost impossible, that I was leaving you.*

*I thought of all the yesterdays, the good ones and the bad,
I thought of all the love we shared, and all the fun we had.
If I could relive yesterday, even for awhile,
I'd say goodbye and kiss you, and maybe see you smile.*

*But then I fully realized, that this could never be,
for emptiness and memories, would take the place of me.
And when I thought of worldly things, I might miss come tomorrow,
I thought of you, and when I did, my heart was filled with sorrow.*

*But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home.
When God looked down and smiled at me, from His great golden throne,*

*He said, "This is eternity, and all I've promised you".
Today your life on earth is past, but here it starts anew.
I promise no tomorrow, but today will always last,
and since each day's the same day, there's no longing for the past.*

*But you have been so faithful, so trusting and so true.
Though there were times you did some things, you knew you shouldn't do.*

*But you have been forgiven and now at last you're free.
So won't you take my hand and share my life with me?*

*So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart, for every time you think of me, I'm right here, in your heart.##imported-begin##Theodora (Hooper) George &

“ *I've had the pleasure to work for Trevor these past four years. Trevor traveled a lot and every time he left he would give everybody a hug. As he he walked out the door he would say to me "take care" and I would reply "safe trip and see you soon". As he would walked back in the door I would say "welcome back" and as he gave me his hug he would ask "did you miss me? I would say "of course" and then we would both laugh. “ Dear Doris and family,
My deepest condolences. My heart goes out to you'll and my thoughts are with you.

I first met Trev when I was 10 years old in boarding school and we were classmates and close friends. As the years went by and we entered our teens, we scrapped our knees and our hearts together, laughing and living to the fullest. He had his faithful vespa and me a small motor bike and together with the rest of the boys we burnt Bangalore ;-) As we entered adulthood I admired Trevor's ambition, focus and dedication to go after what he wanted and what he beleived in.

In passing away so young he has again taught me to live life to the fullest, walk with diginity and love with a passion. he will always be in our hearts and thoughts....till we meet again and the party continues.

“ God called your name so softly,
That only you could hear,
And no one heard the footsteps
Of angels drawing near.
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you did not go alone,
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.
You're always close beside us,
In everything we do,
You were our greatest treasure,
God's gift to us was you.
We always remember that way you looked,
The way you talked and smiled,
The little things you said and did
To make our lives worthwhile.
Each time we look at your picture,
You seem to smile and say,
Don't be sad but courage take
And love each other for my sake

“ God Picked A Rose Today

A Rose was picked from the garden of life today.

A smiling face was taken away.

We will shed a tear because he is no longer here,

Because he was so special and dear.

He is now in a far better place, looking down

On us with a smiling face.

He is now in a place where there is no pain, no hurt,

no sorrow.

He knows that each day will bring

A far better tomorrow.

When you look in the sky tonight, you will see a

Star that is shining so bright.

That is his way

Of telling us he is alright.

“ Dearest Couz,
What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch, we may not understand why you left this earth so soon, or why you left before we were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, we begin to remember not just that you passed on, but that you lived. And that your life gave us memories too beautiful to forget.
All fondness unexpressed, All farewells unspoken, All smiles unseen, A waterfall of tears is not enough.
There are no goodbyes for us, wherever you are, you will always be in our hearts and the promise made in 1975 & 2010 will be honoured.
Dear Doris, Michael, Danielle, Ray, Tessy, Debs, Kev, Carol & Jo,
We trust that beyond absence there is a presence,
That beyond the pain there can be healing,
That beyond the brokenness there can be wholeness,
That beyond the anger there may be peace,
That beyond the hurting there may be forgiveness,
That beyond the silence there may be the word,
That beyond the word there may be understanding,
That through the understanding, there is Love.

“ *Dear Doris, Michael, Danielle, Mr & Mrs King, Carol, Debbie, Joanne & Kevin,
You are all very fondly remembered in our prayers - we ask God to be with each one of you in this hour of need - We will never forget the great memories we've shared over the years with this amazing friend - we are truly blessed to have had him in our lives. I hope these words sum him up in some small way...
Not how did he die, but how did he live?
Not what did he gain, but what did he give?
These are the units to measure the worth
Of a man as a man, regardless of birth.
Not, what was his church, nor what was his creed?
But had he befriended those really in need?
He was ever ready, with word of good cheer,
To bring on a smile, and banish a tear.
Thanks for your friendship, memories and laughter. Rest peacefully dear friend.

I prayed for him and his Family during his time of illness. He was in touch with me and I take this moment to bid farewell to a dear friend, classmate and a School-captian who left us for his heavenly abode. “ Doris, Michael and Danielle, our deepest sympathies for the loss of an incredible husband, father and friend - Trevor was simply an amazing man that lived life to the fullest, with real passion and ambition. I feel like Trevor would want us to celebrate the time we each shared with him, a dear friend to so many. I can't recall a single time together that didn't include abundant laughter and a memorable meal, evening or trip. While his time with us was far too short, he certain made his mark, whether climbing Mt. Kilimanjaro or spending quality time at home - he packed in more adventure, fun, friendships and success than most will in several lifetimes. As you grieve his loss, please know how special he was to so many, and how lucky we were to have time with him.
