

Tyler Rollins

June 7, 1977 - December 21, 2008

William Tyler Rollins graduated from Duluth High School and continued his education at Art Institute of Atlanta, where he continued to develop his artistic skills, serious art as well as cartoon illustrations.

Tyler joined the Marine Corps in March of 2003 only to be cut short by a leg injury. In August, 2003, Tyler was employed with Fire Arms Training Systems (FATS), a high tech military and police training facility, where he continued to serve his country and community.

Tyler is survived by his parents Morlee and Bill Sillesky and Bill and Dianne Rollins, sister Erin Sillesky and brother Matthew Rollins.

“ Remember Me

*To the living, I am gone.
To the sorrowful, I will never return.
To the angry, I was cheated.
But to the happy, I am at peace.
And to the faithful, I have never left.
I cannot be seen, but I can be heard.
So as you stand upon a beautiful sea, think of me.
As you look at awe at a mighty forest and its grand majesty, think of me.
As you look upon a flower and admire its simplicity, think of me.
Remember me in your heart, your thoughts, and the memories of the times we loved, the times we cried, the times we fought, the times we laughed.
For if you always think of me, I will never have gone.*

*Tyler will always and forever be missed by so many who was touched by his life. My we never forget that beautiful smile.
My love to my sister Morlee, his mother, and to his Dad, Billy.

“ I had to send you a second message I cant stop thinking of all the good times we had from blowing stuff up with fireworks to cruising Stone Mountain and of course getting kicked out. Tyler the world needs so many people like you who have such big heart it doesnt always make sense why god takes the best among us out so soon. I 'm going to miss your emails on my space. Even as far away as I am you still brought alittle piece of home to me. The world lost alittle light the day you stepped out of it heaven however got alittle brighter. words can express our sorrow we can only be comforted by the memories and good times we had. My prayers and thoughts are with your family I pray God wraps his arms around them and keeps them close in this hour of need

“ Whoever is your servant is the greatest among you. Whoever makes himself humble will be great. So be a servant! If you are content to simply be yourself, your life will count for plenty. (Matt 23:11-12 The Message)

Tyler epitomized the command to be a servant to all. He painted the children's faces at the Christmas party and he was always helping others. When my husband, Travis, and I were married, Tyler and Kyle helped us move. My son, Matthew, began working for Kyle in September. In such a short time, Matthew had grown very close to Tyler. I watched as Tyler taught Matthew the machining process. Tyler was a patient, kind person. He loved his work, always busily occupying himself with the task at hand. He was an excellent leader who led by example. He was a friend to all and the Meggitt family truly loved him. He was content to simply be himself, and yes, his life surely counted for plenty.

We were greatly blessed to have him among us for such a brief moment in time. Tyler touched the hearts of many and we are truly grateful. He will be missed in our lives and hearts. During this time of loss, we realize that Tyler is in a wonderful place beyond our wildest imagination! To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. Tyler is at home, and he would not want to return to this old world for anything! When King David lost his son he said, "Can I bring him back again? I will go to him but he will not return to me." (2 Sam 12:23 NIV) Like David, may we accept in our hearts the greatest gift of all this Christmas, Jesus Christ as Lord, Savior and King of our lives! Jesus gave us a Christmas gift few ever open, the gift of friendship. He saw that we needed both a savior and a friend. Become a friend of God today! May we grieve not as those who have no hope, indeed we have that blessed hope that we will see Tyler again some day!

Come home, come home. He who is weary, come home. Earnestly, tenderly, Jesus is calling. Calling, Oh Tyler, You're home!

“ We miss you already, our hearts weep with pain
It's hard to imagine we'll never see you again

Your laughter still rings like a song in our ears
Our eyes so full of memories they overflow with tears

You were a rare individual, sincere, always kind
Another like you, it's not likely we'll find

When we think of you, it will be with a smile
We'll remember the ways you made life worthwhile

With a tip of your cap and that easy sweet grin
No mystery at all that our hearts you did win

So rest easy sweet Tyler, for your not alone
Enjoy the music of angels as they carry you home.

“ When I think about Tyler I think of the Joy of Christmas morning. When Tyler entered the room, his smile was like that of a child on Christmas morning. His presence filled the room. The first time I met Tyler, he was with "the group", and I was introduced to him by my daughter, Jena. He didn't just say "Hello", he hugged me, and said "Hey mom". From then on, I was called "mom". When I would leave, he would take the time to hug me goodbye.... because that was just the way Tyler is. When Jena moved, who was there to help her? Tyler. Tyler's heart is as big as the sun! He brought so much JOY to so many people. He has touched so many lives with his kindness, and his life will continue to touch many for years to come. We will all carry something wonderful about Tyler in our hearts forever. As we grow older, with our memories of Tyler, he will be forever young. And Oh! What a party he must be having in Heaven. I pray that each and everyone, that has been touched by Tyler, will draw their strength, peace, and understanding in our Heavenly Father.##imported-begin##Jean Hazlerigs##imported-end##

“ Marlee and Bill, I know from experience that there is nothing I can say that will make you feel better right now or relieve the pain in your hearts. Just know that I've been thinking about you and have been praying for you since I got the prayer request yesterday. I remember Tyler when he was in middle school and high school. One time he, Barry, Jenny, and Renee were crowded in the back seat of our car. I think we were taking them to the bowling alley. He and Barry were just cracking us up. That's how I remember Tyler as a fun and happy guy. I am so sorry. I know God will be with you and your family for a long time as you work through the grief.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with Tyler's family. We are so sorry for your loss. Tyler was a good friend of my son Justin Hendrix. They went to high school together at Collins Hill, and worked at Arby's together. When Justin joined the Army, Tyler joined the Marines. Tyler also was a groomsman at Justin's wedding. I will always remember how polite and courteous he was and so handsome. I wish him God Speed.

“ There are no words at a time like this that can begin to tell you how sorry we are for your loss. The love for a child is a special gift and even though only for a short time God gave you that blessing. It is a love that will forever more last in your heart. Nothing can answer the question as to why this happened but just know that God has a purpose for each and everything whether it be good or bad. Your memories will always keep his love alive. If there is anything we can do for any of you please do not hesitate to call. Our prayers are with you.

“ Dear Morlee, Bill and Erin,
I was sorry to hear of the sudden and tragic death of Tyler. From what Dave and Christy Moore have shared with me, Tyler was an outstanding young man who impacted those around him in positive and meaningful ways. My heart aches that you are having to experience such pain during the Advent and Christmas season. Please know that God is present and hurting with you. Know that there is more than enough room in the manger of the Christ Child to bear all of the pain, hurt, anger, frustration and sorrow of Tyler's death as well as the joy and love filled memories of his life. All of you remain forever in mine and the congregation's prayers. God's peace be with you in the midst of the chaos.

“ Many never know the impression they have made on others in the course of their lives and you will be missed.

All of the Wild Bill's regular dancers are one huge and extended "dance family" regardless of age. We are all drawn together by our enjoyment to dance and have fun. Cases like this are extremely hard any time, but especially at Christmas. Sadly we have lost one of our own.

May God guide and bring strength to your family in these sad times. You may have proceeded us but we all will be with you again some day. Be sure to save us a spot on the Heaven Dance “ Tyler, you were always the one with the smile on your face and a heart of gold. I don't think you ever met someone who wasn't a friend, because that's how you were to everyone. I will forever remember the nights of dancing at Wild Bills and our impromptu dance lessons. Yoda will always make me think of you as I enjoyed our Star Wars banter. All those Tuesdays at Taco Mac were the highlight of my weeks as we all gathered there after work. We never know when the opportunities for those meetings will end, and you lived them to the fullest. Thank you for being my friend and all that came with it. My life was changed just by your being a part of it and the memories will always live on in a special place in my heart.

To Tyler's family: I can not begin to imagine the loss you are feeling. My most sincere condolences go out to you.
