Joke's Story

We announce the death of Joke Famakinwa (nee Owoeye), of Ilahun-Ijesha who passed away February 22, 2022 in Atlanta, GA after a long battle with cancer.

Joke was born August 24 1948 in Ilahun-Ijesha. She started her career working as a nurse and later as a midwife. She later obtained a degree in Public Administration from Middlesbrough College of Technology. Upon her return to Nigeria, she served in the National Youth Service Corps (NYSC) at the Ministry of Youth and Sports in Port-Harcourt Rivers State. She eventually settled on business as her lifelong career and passion, operating multiple successful business ventures over many years. She was a successful Entrepreneur who turned whatever she touched into gold.

She was married to her Husband, Joseph Abiola, for 45 years. and was a faithful Christian who actively helped and bettered the lives of those around her.

Joke is survived by her husband, Joseph Abiola, of Esa-Odo, children, their spouses, grandchildren, sisters, and numerous honorary sons and daughters. She was preceded in death by her parents and other siblings.

The visitation will be held at Northside Chapel Funeral Directors on March 2, 2022 at 10 a.m., followed by a funeral service from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. at the same location. The burial procession will begin right after the service at “ It's been 1 year and still hard to believe you are gone to be with the Lord!

Rest in peace Mummie Joke Famakinwa and thank you for everything you did ma 🙏. You truly left the world better than you found it. Thank you for passing your strength onto us. You were gone way too soon but you taught us how not to be afraid of life and in the end how not to be afraid of death! We just miss you, but God knows best...

You will live forever in our memories and in our hearts because you have given us a lifetime of memories filled with wisdom, faith, prayers, laughter, joy, and happiness ☐.
