“ Our condolences to each family member and friend of Ginger's. We first met playing golf with Ginger and Don at Indian Hills. Over the years we shared many bridge games, luncheons, and fun get-togethers. Her passing is a sad loss to so many. Becky and Ron Royer

“ I only met Ginger a little over a year ago when my friends, Kehn & Alicia Dickerson, became her next door neighbor, during the week her husband died. They embraced her as family and she did the same with them. I felt like I knew Ginger though their love for her. I do know that she enjoyed life and you felt it when you were with her. She will be missed by all those that ever knew her!!

“ I loved the few opportunities I had to play golf with Ginger and always stopped for a chat whenever I had the good fortune to cross her path. She was truly a special person. I will miss her every time I pass her house knowing she is no longer there. I know she and Don are together once again as it should be. My sincere condolences to her family.

“ What a wonderful friend she was to so many people. She always had a smile & kind word for everyone. I remember when she & her husband would have dinner with us & all the laughs we shared. When they lived in Brookfield the guys would play golf together each week. Ginger was also in a neighborhood bridge group with me where we did a lot of talking & laughing. She was well liked by everyone who met her because she was so nice & so much fun to be with. I will cherish her memory & keep her & her family in my prayers. I'll miss her. Marilyn Lawton
