

Mrs. Virginia "Tot" Thompson Mohr

September 5, 1922 - June 18, 2019

VIRGINIA "TOT" MOHR passed away on June 18, 2019, in Marietta, Georgia. Born Bertha Virginia Thompson on September 5, 1922, in Springer, New Mexico, she was the daughter of Abner Loomis Thompson and Allie Emily Jane (Adair) Thompson. Her mother passed away shortly after childbirth and Tot was raised by her aunt and uncle, Arthur and Ressie (Adair) Smith of Goodwater, Alabama. Given the nickname "Tot" by a favorite uncle when she was a child, she graduated from Clay County High School, Ashland, Alabama, and attended Montevallo College in Montevallo, Alabama. With the outbreak of World War II, she became a steno clerk at E.I. DuPont de Nemours in Childersburg, Alabama, where she met her future husband, Frederick James Mohr. After a brief stint in Minneapolis, Minnesota, they settled in Newark, Ohio, at the end of the war. She also lived in New Orleans, Louisiana, and Boardman, Ohio, before she and Fred retired to Roswell, Georgia, in 1981. After he passed away, she lived in Alpharetta, Sandy Springs, and eventually Marietta, Georgia.

Tot was an avid writer and entered many contests winning, among other items, vacations, cars, appliances, and cash. Her skills were put to good use when she wrote a history of the Fred Mohr family, recalling many everyday incidents of their lives. She also loved to play bridge and to work both jigsaw puzzles and crossword puzzles. She and Fred loved to travel and did so extensively. Before her eyesight began to fail her, she was an excellent seamstress for herself as well as for her daughters. She had an uncanny ability of merging patterns to duplicate a ready-to-wear item of clothing. Irrespective of where they lived, Tot was always very involved in Methodist church activities whether it was a women's circle, program chair for her Sunday school class, or working as a volunteer in the church office. She was one of the original members of Northbrook United Methodist Church in Roswell to which she still belonged. For many years, she was a very active volunteer with the American Red Cross.

She is survived by her children: Caroline Mohr, Dunwoody, GA; Helen Mohr Montross, N. Chatham, MA; Richard (Robbie) Mohr, Roanoke, TX; and Patricia Mohr Holden, Powder Springs, GA; grandsons Michael (Joanne) Mohr, Flagstaff, AZ; Marcus (Emily) Mohr, Pace, FL; great-grandchildren Arthur Mohr, Morag, Poland; Emma Caroline Mohr and Maryella Mohr, Pace, FL.

Visitation will be at Northside Chapel and Funeral Home, 12050 Crabapple Road, Roswell, GA on Friday, June 21st, 2019 from 2 to 4 pm and 6 to 8 pm. Funeral services will be held at Northbrook United Methodist Church, 11225 Crabapple Road, Roswell, GA on Saturday, June 22nd, 2019 at 11:00 am followed by interment at Green Lawn Cemetery, Roswell, GA. Contributions in her memory may be made to Northbrook United Methodist Church.

“ I love Tot. She was always a voice of sensibility during our time together in Bible studies or UMW activities. Her sense was so deeply rooted in her love of God and people. I am so sorry that I am unable to be with all of her friends and family in person as we will be traveling.
