“ Walt was a true classic. I got to know Walt when he was our Sanyo Rep. He was professional, took care of us extremely well, and was a whole lot of fun. Walt was a guy you couldn't wait to see on his next visit. I always enjoyed hearing about his travels.

Condolences to his family and friends.

“ Walt was a true friend that I had the pleasure of knowing for over 30 years.

A true master salesman he was.

When you spent a day with Walt, you were always sorry to see it end.

We had many, many ventures together and as the Piano Man says " he was quick with a joke, and would light up your smoke". Like a close relative, Walt is one of those I will remember until I remember no more.

Godspeed Walt, and see you on the flip side

“ I knew Walter while growing up in Cleveland, Ohio. We lived two homes away from each other. I have many memories of sharing time with Walter both in his family home and in my family home. A few years ago my wife and I traveled to Atlanta and stopped by to visit Walter and enjoyed the opportunity to re-establish our friendship.

May he rest in peace.
