“ Pastor Booker was a great man. His ministry was helping struggling church and aiding reconciliation and healing. He was a good preacher, a strong person, gentle and kind. He stayed in our home, and when this giant of a man walked in, it seemed our small house shrank! He had a great speaking voice and laughed easily. He was a wonderful friend to my parents, and they have very likely already welcomed him to heaven. I am very thankful for his impact on our church, Peoples Baptist, and on my life. May the Lord comfort his children. Praying for your family.
