

Wayne Lee Pleasant Jr.

August 22, 1975 - April 24, 2024

Wayne Lee Pleasant Jr. was born on August 22, 1975, in Camden, New Jersey. He attended Washington Township High School in New Jersey. After graduation, he pursued a dual degree in IT and Accounting at Rider University. He continued his educational journey at Georgia State University, where he earned a Master's Degree in Information Systems Management Technology.

Throughout his career, Wayne excelled professionally, holding positions at several Fortune 500 companies. At the time of his passing, he was an Associate Director at Robert Half Consulting Firm, Protiviti.

In addition to his professional pursuits, Wayne was deeply committed to community service. He was an active member of The 100 Black Men of Atlanta Inc., where he served as treasurer and was honored with The Hank Aaron Member of the Year Award.

Wayne had a passion for golf and poker, winning accolades such as the Steve Harvey Invitational Golf Classic longest drive contest and numerous World Series of Poker events. He prioritized experiences over material possessions, living life with a minimalist mindset.

Wayne is preceded in death by his parents, Wayne Lee Pleasant Sr. and Robin Pleasant. He is survived by his loving wife of 16 years, Dana Pleasant, and bonus daughter Danielle Young. He also leaves behind his brother, Phillip Pleasant, and nephews Philip Aaron Pleasant (PJ) and Jordan Pleasant and their mother Jametria Pleasant, as well as a large extended family and countless friends.

As Wayne often expressed, "I came to Atlanta to find me a Georgia Peach," but his impact extended far beyond initial aspirations. He leaves behind a treasured legacy and has touched the lives of many with his kindness, generosity, and ability to bring people together.

“ I was saddened to hear of Wayne's passing just a few hours ago. Wayne and I went to school together from 6th through 12th grade. He reached out to me out of the blue a couple years back, and we played phone tag never able to connect. Wayne was a great guy, and will be missed by many. -CJ Quinn
