“ Cyndy, Bill, Jack and family, our prayers and thoughts are with you. We loved living across the street and knowing you as more than neighbors, but as friends we could always count on for whatever we needed. We loved watching our kids play together “in the street” and grow into great young men. Our days with Bill and your family will forever be memories of some of the best days of our life. We love you and pray for peace and comfort.
