“ My memories with Bill go back to our working days at Harland. We were lunch buddies. When he left we stayed in touch and would talk 'taxes' several times through the year cause he did my taxes! I always enjoyed talking to Bill. He was the most honest, matter of fact and funny guy!! I'll miss him very much! My prayers go out to Cynthia and the girls!!

“ So many fond memories of you as a young man when you lived with us for a brief time. For that short time you were like a little brother. Our families had so much fun when we all left West Virginia for Florida. My sincere sympathy to your family. You were a blessing and will be truly missed.
