

Mrs. Yewande Idowu Onigbinde

July 6, 1983 - September 17, 2019

Yewande Idowu Onigbinde, 36, of Roswell, Georgia, went to be with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on Tuesday, September 17, 2019. We are shocked by her sudden passing but we do not grieve as those without hope. (1 Thessalonians 4:13-14).

The world feels dimmer without Yewande in it. But we believe that God will bring beauty out of this difficult season.

Yewande was born in Lagos, Nigeria, and moved to the United States after a short stint in Johannesburg, South Africa. She attended Alabama A&M for undergraduate work and earned her Executive Master of Business Administration at the University of New Orleans. She completed her post-baccalaureate work in accounting at Georgia State University.

She was working in St. Louis, Missouri, when she met her love Fola Onigbinde. They wed on April 5, 2014, and created a life together, which include two beautiful children Zachary, age 3, and Nathan, age 1.

Lively, fun and passionate are words that describe Yewande well. She loved to travel and reveled in the growing number of stamps in her passport. She delighted in being at home and spending time with her family. She enjoyed helping others—whether it was to remind family members of birthdays or putting life in perspective as friends made big decisions. She helped put others at ease.

Yewande was a senior manager of IT Financial Analysis at Georgia Pacific. She and Fola attended Victory World Church in Norcross.

Yewande was preceded to heaven by her unborn baby Micah Noah Oluwaseun.

In addition to husband Fola and children Zachary and Nathan, Yewande is survived by her parents Lawrence Ayotunde Idowu and Grace Anike Idowu; siblings Jide, Dayo and Peju; and numerous family members and friends.

Funeral services will be held for Yewande at 1p.m. on Sunday, September 22, at Northside Chapel in Roswell. Burial will follow.

“ It is no cliché if anyone says you were a beautiful person. You lived a beautiful life - seeing the world, making sure everyone was okay and just being genuine and peaceful yet bubbly. We had talked about getting to see during one of the holidays but God had a different plan.

I pray for God's comfort and strength for the family left behind. He will not give more than we can bear. I pray for your husband to find comfort and for your boys to grow with so much love around them. It's a painful loss but we are hopeful for the eternal reunion. We take consolation in the fact that you lived well and will cherish the memories that will stay with us.

May your soul and the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace.

“ You had such a beautiful soul, full of love and joy. You always made sure to check on me though we were miles apart. My thoughts and prayers are with your family; when the person you love has gone away, remember you always have their memories with you. It is something that no one can take away from you. We are thinking of you during this sad time.

I will keep dear to my heart our conversations.

May you Rest In Peace.

“ We didn't have a chance of meeting you face to face on this side of eternity but are hopeful that we will see you again on the other side. Even from the calls we had, your warmth radiated through. We are distraught and disheartened but we know God has a better plan even though we don't understand. We will miss you dearly.
